

Date		Administrative level
		Federal state	Canton of Zürich	City of Zürich
A	15.07.1918	Federal decree authorizes the cantons and municipalities to prohibit events that may lead to mass gatherings.	School closed (summer vacation)	School closed (summer vacation)
B	18.07.1918		Prohibition of events (theater performances, cinematographs, concerts, public meetings, public festivals, preaching in churches and club halls). Implementation of the influenza reporting obligation for the canton of Zürich
C	25.07.1918
D	30.07.1918			Set of measures: ban on assemblies and events of any kind (incl. regligious services) and on laying out corpses at home, extended opening hours of pharmacies, extension of school vacations by 14 days, reduced seating in public houses and reduced occupancy of trams
E	23.08.1918		First relaxations for the districts of Zurich, Affoltern, Horgen, Meilen and Dielsdorf: gatherings in the same place or in the same room may be held again. Festivities, such as church festivities and dancing, remain prohibited.
F	24.08.1918			Schools open after summer vacation since 15.07.1918
G	28.08.1918		Further relaxations: The Directorate of Public Health is authorized to approve, upon special request, festivities in individual municipalities of the Canton of Zurich. Dancing remains prohibited
H	10.10.1918			Schools close (primary and secondary school) for fall vacation.
I	11.10.1918	Introduction of the nationwide reporting obligation for influenza. In addition, establishment of the legal basis for the Confederation to provide financial assistance to the cantons.	Reintroduction of the same measures of 25.07.1918: Prohibition of events (theater performances, cinematographs, concerts, public meetings, public festivals, preaching in churches and club halls)
J	23.10.1918	Partial assumption of costs by the federal government for the construction of emergency hospitals, employment of nursing staff, compensation for doctors and the unemployed.
K	09.-14.11.1918		General strike, disregard of the ban on assembly, tens of thousands of strikers and troops are gathered in the central places of the canton.
L	05.12.1918			Municipal authorities have, at their own discretion, retracted most of the necessary measures
M	11.12.1918			Regular school starts again, but with reduced class size
N	14.12.1918		First relaxation of the measures: public gatherings, festivities of any kind (incl. religious services). Dancing and singing practices remain forbidden. The responsibility to adapt the measures accoring to the situation lies with the municipalities. The Zurich Health Department advised against holding public Christmas parties.
O	28.12.1918		Further relaxation: hospital visits are allowed again. Decision on permission or prohibition of singing exercises and performances is placed in the competence of local health authorities (municipalities).
P	23.05.1919	All decisions issued by the federal government for the control and prevention of influenza, with the exception of the obligation to notify, are repealed again.
Q	05.02.1920	Recommendation of prohibition of dancing and singing in large events	Recommendation of prohibition of dancing and singing in large events	